cutting through complexity

To Hong Kong, for example

KPMG International Case Competition

Our International Case Competition gives you and three teammates the chance to work on tough business problems in real time. Challenge yourself to think creatively and come up with refreshing business solutions, and you could really go places. If you win your national title, you could travel to Hong Kong on an all-expenses-paid trip to compete in the international final.

Rise to the occasion. Push yourself. Go beyond.
