

Press Release

16 July 2011

Caribbean Amateur Golf Championship

The Cayman Islands Golf Association has selected four teams to compete in the 55th Caribbean Amateur Tournament at Millennium Lakes Golf & Country Club in Trinidad from 1- 8 August.

The players competed in mid May in six rounds of golf to qualify as a finalist. Two from each division was selected to form the women's team, the men's team and a senior and mid amateur team.

KPMG is proud to support the team as the Uniform sponsor. The uniform includes the same hat that Phil Mickelson wears with the pink ribbon to show his support of breast cancer awareness. Phil's wife and mother are both breast cancer survivors.

Nine teams from across the Caribbean will compete at Millennium's par 71 layout. This course requires a great deal of skills to manage the deep bunkering and lakes that are scattered throughout.

Samantha Widmer, the defending champion on the women's team, stated "The Caribbean Amateur Championship is the premiere golf tournament in the Caribbean region, attracting the best players from each of the individual islands. In providing sponsorship for this fantastic event, KPMG is giving our island's best players the opportunity to excel. We are very grateful for their support and are looking forward to representing the island and KPMG this coming August."

"All of us at the Cayman Islands Golf Association and the National Team are grateful to KPMG for its generous support of the National Team" said Joel.
