

Surviving and Thriving in Challenging Times

Like all businesses operating in Christchurch, our firm has been adversely touched by the effects of the Earthquake on 22 February. We fully appreciate the battle ahead for many businesses. We have responded by putting together a team of advisers to assist our clients with the dilemma faced by many – do you battle on, draw a line in the sand or take advantage of the long-term opportunities that the re-build may offer.

Delays in receiving aid and assistance, uncertainties relating to insurance payouts, loss of premises and inventory – these are the real issues faced by the Christchurch business community.

We are here to help with those issues and others by providing sound advice, support and expertise.

A summary of the services we can offer are as follows:

- Cash flow assessment, planning and implementation;
- Strategies to support your team and key personnel;
- Analysis and consideration of all options available;
- Operational guidance and assistance;
- Helping you manage relationships with your key suppliers and customers;
- Liaison with key stakeholders in your business, including banks, investors and other financiers;
- Devising short to long term strategies to help your business survive and prosper.

In conjunction with our Business Advisory, Tax, IT and Insurance Claims teams, we can assist you and your team to plan for the future.

Our approach is to proactively assist our clients with their business issues and we always aim to do that in an empathetic and supportive way.

We are here to help. We want to be part of the team that helps you and your business rebuild and focus on the future, and ensure that you benefit from that advice and assistance in the years to come.

Please ring, text or email us if you'd like us to get in touch.
